“Angela, a beautiful person. Kind, caring and thoughtful. We only knew each other for a short 5 1/2 months but it was more than enough time to realize that she had a warm and generous spirit. Till we meet again, rest peacefully. Elaine

“To my friend Ann: It is so hard for me to believe that I will never be able to call and talk to you on the phone again.....that I won't be able to hear your laugh and hear you talk about your dreams, goals, and plans for the future. I will miss your voice, your smile, and your awesome sense of style. I love you and I will never ever forget you. You were not only my friend but you were my sister (and I told you so). We would always end our phone calls with "I Love You". I am not going to say "Goodbye" but that I will see you later and until that time, you Rest in Love. You had a lot of people in your life who only have good memories of you. To my family "The Spencers" I have grieved every one of your losses and you are in my prayers when I mention to The Most High to place a hedge of protection around my family, friends, and loved ones because you are included in each one of these categories. I love you, I am praying for you and I call you blessed of The Most High God.Â Â

“ I work part time at the group home and Angela was my supervisor. I'm still sad and surprised by her death. We had been texting for days because she was so excited to be off on the weekendÂ and her upcoming birthday. She had already asked me to work for her because she was planning for her birthday. Angela was sweet as pie and she really worked hard for the guys at Nottingham. She will truly be missed. She talked about her sister, brother ,niece and great niece all the time. But I know she is in heaven with her parents, we talked during Christmasâ, time about her missing her mommy.

“ To the Spencer Family...I’ve been around ya’ll for a long time and to lose my best friend has really hit me hard. I’m sending my deepest condolences to the entire Spencer family. I was by Ann’s side when her, mom, dad, and siblings passed. All I can say is that Ann was special to a lot of people. This loss will impact all of us, but we have to carry on her legacy. She was a true Angel. BeeDee I’m depending on you to fill the void that I’m about to experience. So, when I call you let’s just talk about the good times we had with Ann. This is going to be tough. May she Rest In Peace until we meet again. Love ya Ann!

“ Ann, my best friend. Your passing completely caught me off guard. The phone rang and your name came up and I said “What’s up Ann?” Only to hear your brother’s Ricky’s voice on the other end. All I could do was say why?, why you?, my best friend, someone who knew just about everything about me. Ann, I’ve cried and I’ve wished that it’s not true. God has called you home. Something that we’ve talked about over the years but neither one of knew that it would happen this quick in life. You were an Angel when you were alive and now you’re a guardian Angel to many. I miss you so much and I don’t know how I’m going to get through this one. However, the best part of this is that I’m going to see you again. I promise that. Your legacy will live on. Rest up, because we will have a lot to talk about and share when I see you again. Love you! Your bestie. Jackie Jenkins-Chapman

“ To the Spencer Family, It is with deep sadness that I offer my heartfelt condolences in the transition of your loved one and my friend Angie. We worked together at University Hospitals of Cleveland for many years and were reunited at the Everlasting Baptist Church where I serve in the Music Ministry. Her smile was absolutely electric and her laugh was infectious. Most of all I can remember our many talks about our mutual love of God and gratitude for all that he was in our lives. Angie had a relationship with our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. It was not a casual relationship, but a deep rooted faith in that what ever might happened in our lives God would always see us through. We shared a great love for Gospel Music. I will so miss seeing in the congregation while ministering through song. Her beautiful face would light up as she experienced the Holy Spirit move in the church. Be Encouraged to know that absence from the Body means presence with the LORD. She is safe in the arms of Jesus Lovingly Submitted Michael Harrison Music Ministry Everlasting Baptist Church

“ To the Spencer family : I was shocked and extremely saddened when I heard that Ann had passed away. I met Ann when she was eight years old, she would come into my store everyday to buy a bag of candy. She and my daughters, Jackie and Carron grew up together and they were very close. I learned to love Ann like she was my own daughter and I always referred to her as "my girl." I will miss her, her lovely smile and her magnetic personality and I am sure she will be greatly missed by everyone that knew her.Â Â Â To all of the family, I hope knowing that I too, share your great loss, will in some small way help ease that awful pain of grief.Â Respectfully Yours.Â Â Â Â Â Â Bill Jenkins --aka "Jinks "Â
