Camella Williams Obituary

Camella Williams age 80 was the daughter of Cloyd and Lola Simms. She was born in Cleveland, Ohio. Camella was a devoted wife to her late husband Jerry. Camella was a master seamstress and she liked to quilt. She loved to bake and sell pound cakes, traveling and planning family trips. Camella also enjoyed reading, watching tennis matches and basketball. She would always say that Michael Jordan and Muhamad Ali were her boyfriends. She was a collector of Owl's. Education was important to her. She enjoyed learning about African American history. She couldn't get enough of her "word searches". She loved her family and loved to prepare her Marcus Garvey bean salad for gatherings. Her faith and reaching her goals were examples for her family. Her memory will be cherished by her children Keith, Jerry and Marcia, 4 grandchildren, 9 great-grandchildren and 1 great great grandchild.
