“ May God have mercy upon Mr. Meneese's soul. May he shower his beloved wife Mrs. Meneese, along with all his family and friends with peace and strength. May the tears shed be those of joy in celebration of the life Mr. Meneese lived and memories made with each life he touched. May the tears shed not be tears of sorrow but again tears of joy, as all rejoice in the knowledge that he rests in the eternal comforts of the Lord. Thanks be to God!

“ Dear Ma,

As you already know I was unable to make the service. I am happy that Kirk was able to be by your side despite me not being able to. I was fortunate to have spoken to Mr Meneese many times when you were either working in the garden or going out at the the gym. I told him on many occasions how much appreciate him for how he took care of you. I also told him that I apologized for being a brat at times when growing up when you did the best job you could as a parent, while he sat back observing.

Bottom line is Mr Meneese was an amazing man that will be honored because of his discipline, work ethic, respect and humility as an amazing human being. I loved Mr Meneese and I love you and promise to do my best ensuring you continue to be taken care of.

Love,

Kenny
