Cordia Beeks Obituary

Cordia Beeks was born September 30, 1918 in Griffith, Georgia. She was one of four children born to Joseph Sr. and Lillian Isom Beeks. All of her brothers preceded her in death: Joseph Jr., Charles and her twin brother who passed at birth. She was named after her grandmother, Cordia Harmon. Accepting Christ at an early age, Cordia was taught about the importance of attending church. In 1987 she joined First Presbyterian Church of East Cleveland where she was very much involved and was installed as Deacon and Elder. She was also a greeter and usher. She took her rolls in the Church of importance to her. Life within the church for the Presbyterian Women's where she volunteered at Garden Valley Neighborhood House. She was asked to bake her famous butter cookies and oatmeal cookies with joy. Within the community of East Cleveland Helen Brown Center was the place she enjoyed beside church. Cordia leaves to celebrate her life, Wana Jenkins (Fred); nephew, Gordon Beeks (Penny); great nieces, 9 nephews, cousin by blood as well as those bonded through love. We shall miss her.
