

Corine Ross

March 10, 1935 - September 13, 2011

CORRINE ANITA ROSS, daughter of the late Choice and Rosella Carter, was born in Winder, Georgia on March 10, 1935. She was the third oldest of five children.

Corrine attended the Cleveland Public Schools. Corrine was employed with The Veteran Administration until retirement.

Corrine loved to perform in her early years with Karamu. She also loved to travel.

Corrine accepted Christ earlier in life and then attended Bethany church under the pastorship of Dr. Robin Hedgeman.

Corrine was united in holy matrimony to Herbert E. Ross on August 14, 1986. All though no children were born out of this union, Corrine and Herbert claimed everyone's children as their own.

After a lengthy illness she departed her life on Tuesday, September 13, 2011.

She leaves to cherish her precious memory: Her loving husband Herbert Ross; her brothers, Jack and Kenneth; one brother John Carter and one sister Betty Daniels that preceded her in death, a sister-in-law, Millicent Harrison.

Four nephews, Lawrence, Gregory, Anthony and Kenneth Jr., two nieces, Anita and April. She also leaves to mourn her best friend Louella Hopkins and her children Joseph, Frederick, Monica (Goddaughter), Anthony, Michelle and Karla whom she claims as her own children. Her other goddaughter Tiara with a host of great nephews, nieces, relatives and friends.
