Corzetta Duncan Obituary

Corzetta Duncan was born on July 24, 1948 in Cleveland, Ohio. She was the beloved daughter of Christine Mathenay (deceased) and Richard Clark (deceased). Corzetta was the third of eight children. She was preceded in death by her sister, Patricia Harris and brother, Donald Mathenay. She attended East High School where she met her husband, Harold Lee Duncan Sr. of 46 years. Together three children were born: Sheila, LaTonya and Harold Jr. She was a dedicated employee for the Margaret Wagner Nursing Home in Cleveland Heights as Supervisor of Housekeeping. After living in Atlanta, Georgia for several years, she moved back to Ohio where she resided in Akron, because of her love and devotion for her family. Corzetta accepted Christ at an early age. She was a faithful member of The House of the Lord and WWTIC (Women Walking Together in Christ). Her hobbies included cooking and decorating. On October 12, 2011 while her husband was reading the Bible to her, Corzetta was called to eternal rest. Corzetta leaves to cherish her memory a loving and devoted husband, Harold Lee Duncan Sr.; children, Sheila Rawls (Ernest), LaTonya Sanford (Rodney) and Harold Lee Duncan Jr.; siblings: Bertha L. McClellan (John), Harold Mathenay, Melvin Mathenay, Rhonda Guyon (Willie) Lindora Mathenay, Stanley Mathenay; grandchildren: Emmanuel Duncan, Quintin Duncan, Edwin Duncan, Marcus Duncan Rawls, Nicole Sanford; great-grandchildren, Quintin Duncan Jr. and Don'Quez Duncan; brothers-in-law, Earl Duncan (Rozlyn), Luther Duncan and Robert Harris; and a host of other relatives and friends. Visitation OCT 19.
