Edward Dixon Obituary

Edward Allen Dixon was born August 29, 1983 to Edwina Dixon also known to many as Momma Tiny. He attended Catholic schools and later graduated Twinsburg High School.

Edward was known to many as Ed or Chugg. Ed had many jobs and was always employed somewhere. He made it happen. He was a lovable person and very unique.

Ed was a proud father of two amazing children: his daughter Ava Nicole and his son Karter which he loved so much.

In his spare time he enjoyed eating good food, hanging out with his homies, and watching his favorite sport which was wrestling.

Ed departed this life on December 15th. It was a shock to us all, but his memory will live on in our minds and in our hearts. As we all struggle through this very difficult time.

Edward leaves to cherish his memory, his mother Edwina, 'Momma Tiny'; his three aunts Marlene Morgan, Narkeytah Dixon "Aunty Granny" and Shanora "Binky" "Danel"; two uncles, Thomas Grant "Tyikie" and Edward Dixon "Chip"; his children, the love of his life, Ava Nicole and Karter; his first cousins, Wade, Tash, Tyikiea, “Roni” Waity and Wendy. A host of more cousins and lots of friends to all were his family.

“ I can talk forever and still not say enough. The way we shined together there will never be another us. Nothing but snakes and fakes out here...I'll never experience trust. There's other people who really deserve that dust. You told me everything they all said about me. So there's no trust. You knew how to balance family with the foolishness. Which is always tough. You knew your weakness was lust. Mines is the abundance. With us integrity was always a must. Which is an exotic trait when we're surrounded by imposters, reptilians and such. In a blink of an eye you vanished dawg. This shit is rough. Staring in a daze daily. Wishing I had a target to bust. Too much rage and emotions bottled up. You kept my temper in check. You knew it was tough. So now I sit alone so I won't have to huff and puff. You knew with me peace and solitude is a must. You were focused on living it up. We knew we had to adjust. Eliminate the wrong people around us. Too much mistrust. Disgust! I'm trying to put sense to this. Because I'm crushed. I'll never let another person close to me. For what? They're all fake with personal agendas. Just not in front. Watch over me brodini you know I need it. There's a lot of imposters and obstacles I'm about to confront. Holla at me whenever. You'll never interrupt. I'm putting everyone on my shoulders dawg. I'm about to finish everything we discussed.... Breathe easy brodini!! My comrade! I love you forever dawg!!Mone
