“ I am happy to have known Evelyn. She was a wonderful person with a great smile, an amazing memory, and helpful spirit. I marveled how well she got around. She spoke at the 100 anniversary of Unity Baptist and left her glasses there. When I told her that I had them, she said that she really didn't need them that they were just reading glasses. I was amazed at the stories that she told me about events of the 20's and 30's. God made her special and she will be missed.
