“ I send my love and deepest sympathy to Raymon, Randy, and Ralfe as they mourn the loss of their dear mother. I grew up on McCann with the Turner family dating back to the early 70's which seems just like yesterday. I spent many Saturdays in their basement playing pool, ping pong, and electric football. While playing, Ralfe and I would often laugh as we would hear his mom upstairs jogging laps around the living room, through the kitchen and back to the living room getting her exercise on. God bless my friends during this time and my prayer is for them to find comfort which comes from above. God bless!!!

“ My mother Lorraine and her cousin Gwen were quite the pair. I enjoyed watching their interactions and listening to their conversations. They shared stories about growing up, showed us the importance of family, and demonstrated love and caring for us to emulate.

I remember the last time i saw them together, enjoying each other's company. These first-cousins were good friends to each other.

I offer condolences to Gwen's family for their loss. She was a good woman.
