

Isiah Z. Jennings

July 24, 1929 - December 6, 2020

Isiah Jennings Obituary

Isiah (Z) was born July 24, 1929 to the late Haywood Jennings and Carolyn Jennings of Roland, Arkansas. Isiah attended Dunbar High School then later worked in Little Rock, Arkansas for a railroad company named Rock Island Railroad. Later he moved to Chicago Illinois where he was an owner of a lounge named Jennings Lounge. Isiah enlisted into the military in Fort Bliss, Texas from 1951 to 1953 then moved back to Chicago. Isiah (Z) left Chicago in 1973 to move Cleveland, Ohio to live with his brother Harman Jennings where he started his own auto body business called Gino's Auto body. Later in 1992, Isiah (Z) united in marriage to Agnes R. Jackson, where he accepted Rodney Jackson as his stepson.

Isiah (Z) accepted Christ at an early age. In 1970 he became a member of The Most Worshipful Saint John's Grand Lodge, Jurisdiction of Ohio. He enjoyed watching boxing and baseball and most of all he enjoyed spending time with his family and friends. Isiah was a hard-working man, he liked to spend most of his time in his place of business in his garage.

Isiah (Z) loved to travel to visit family and spend time with his host of friends in Chicago Illinois and Roland Arkansas. He loved telling jokes that made his friends and family laugh. He passed away December 6, 2020. Those left to mourn Isiah (Z) are wife Agnes, his sisters Haydee, Valda, and Yvonna, his brother Clark, his sons Bennett and Rodney, daughter Lyletha; 5 grandchildren, 1 grandchild, a host of nieces and nephews, extended family, and lifelong friends.

To send flowers
to the family or plant a tree in memory of Isiah Z. Jennings, please visit our floral store.

Read More