“ Paul and Evey Mason during Yom Kippur honored Jackie during the Yiskor service. Usually the Rabbi hands out rose petals which you hold during the service and say the person's name out loud. Because of the pandemic it had to be done a little different this year. The Rabbi asked everyone at home to gather leaves and name the people you are honoring. Paul and Evie went to a beautiful lake and named Jackie, our parents, and our other siblings who have passed as they threw the leaves into the water. They cried but were joyful that these wonderful souls had been in our lives. Thank you Paul and Evie.

“ I am Jackie's youngest sister, Madeline Greene. I live in Maryland and because of the virus, I am unable to be in Cleveland at this time. The family will come together in the spring to honor Jackie's life. She was always a great big sister and was preceded in death by our siblings, Beverly, Mary, Bobbie, and Stanley. The remaining four, Doris, Jane, Patricia, and I miss them all and pray that she has been united with our parents and siblings. We miss them all.
