“ First, to Christine, you have so wonderfully cared for your father during the last months of his life making sure he received the best possible medical care and treatment. You have carefully completed his last and detailed instructions which are a great accomplishment in light of all your other obligations and responsibilities. We love you and will never forget all the things you have done for both your father and your mother at the end of their lives. May the peace of God overshadow during these days of grief and mourning.

To Joseph and Serena, we are so proud of you and may you experience the peace of God in your deepest sorrows.

To Betty, a wonderful, loyal and loving partner and friend may you experience the comfort that only comes from our loving Heavenly Father. May you receive strength during these days of grieving and illness.

To Myrtle, the big sister who has had a special relationship with Jimmy for all his long life may you experience special strength, comfort and peace as you hold the rich heritage of family history and accomplishments.

To the rest of the family and especially those who are not able to attend the funeral may you experience God's perfect peace in home-going of our beloved uncle Jimmy who was a kind and generous family patriarch and a dear friend.
