“ My condolences to the family. I remember big sis when I was a young child. Her and her twin sister would stop by my mother's place. It would be my mother, Rosalyn, Paulette, Wam and a host of family would get together and I would sit back watch and listen to lots of laughter

“ Although you had a tough beginning I always admired you for what you became you and your sister. Always helpful and joyful. Remembering a time at my house when I'd be cooking and the two of you would come into the kitchen and just stand and laugh until I figured out you were there to be my taste testers that gave us all a big laugh love miss you
