“ Our thoughts and prayers are with your family. I hope the words in Isaiah 41:10,13 give you hope and comfort.

“ Dear Family & Friends:

This message hopefully will give you comfort and hope, as you reflect on your loss. I have also lost loved ones to the enemy death (1 Corinthians 15:26). I miss them everyday but God promised that we have the opportunity to see them again through the resurrection hope stated at Acts 24:15 & John 5:28 & 29. God loved us so much, He sent His Son to die for us so it was not God's intention for mankind to die; but live forever on this earth 1 Peter 3:18. Knowing that there will be another opportunity to see them should comfort us and realize they are simply in a deep sleep for now, John 11:28. Time does help with the healing but knowing the answers to the following questions, gives us peace of mind during a time of grieving: Why God has permitted our loved ones to die? What happens to a person at death? This accurate knowledge is found in our Bibles and frees us from the fear of death and the understanding of death. It also says, "you will not sorrow just as the rest also do who have no hope," 1 Thessalonians 4:13. This is an invitation for Family & Friends and I would hope to talk to you via phone or responding to this letter via e-mail 804.745.3979 or mrsma.boyd@yahoo.com. Again, you have my condolences and hope to hear from you and bring added comfort you need at this time.

Love,
