Maggielean Pinkard Obituary

Maggielean Pinkard was born December 26, 1935 in Newborn, Georgia to the union of the late Idella Griggs and Robert Wright Sr. Maggielean accepted Christ at an early age. She had two brothers and one sister who preceded her in death. James R. Rander, Jr. (Ann, deceased), Robert Wright Jr. (Marshall), Annie Collins (Charlie, deceased). She is survived by her husband Charlie Pinkard whom she married in 1952. Through that union was born six children of which two preceded her in death, Charles Pinkard Jr. and Gregory Pinkard. She leaves to cherish her memories: Charlene Garner (John), Leroy Pinkard (Christine, deceased) Barbara Pinkard and Steven Pinkard (Blondean). Sister, Lucinda Womack (Percy, deceased); special sister, Emma Kate Pope, eight grandchildren, five great-grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends. Maggielean was the matriarch of the family. She was very quiet and reserved in spirit, but knew how to show that "Agape Love" to all her children, grandchildren and family. She loved all the same and never showed favoritism with her children or grandchildren. She showed much love to all which she came in contact with. She enjoyed cooking, baking, canning and she kept an immaculate house. Everyone looked forward to getting together on Sundays and Holidays because they knew they would enjoy a fantastic down home cooked meal. Everyone was always welcomed to have a plate.
