Mary Lea Thomas-Triggs was born on May 13, 1978 in Cleveland, Ohio to the late Elizabeth Hardy and Floyd Hare. Mary was the youngest sibling of six children.

Mary was affectionately known as Peaches, grew up in East Cleveland, Ohio and attended East Cleveland City Schools. She graduated from Shaw High School in 1996. Mary was associated with several organizations while in school such as basketball, volleyball, track and drill teams. She also did modern dance.

After graduating from high school Mary attended Cleveland State University, where she earned her degree in Science and Art. She also obtained a degree in Criminal Justice.

Mary was blessed with four children from her first marriage. She later on married Norman Triggs on August 17, 2017 in San Diego, California. Mary and Norman eventually moved to Thibodaux, Louisiana

Mary enjoyed cooking and spending time with her family and friends. And she really enjoyed having a glass of wine while relaxing on the couch watching her criminal shows. Mary was a fashionista, especially when it came to her purses.

Mary was deeply loved and will be tremendously missed by everyone who crossed her path. Both of her parents and two brothers Jerry Hardy and Floyd Hare Jr. also preceded her in death.

Suddenly on November 18, 2021 in Thibodaux, Louisiana, Christ called Mary home. Mary leaves to cherish her memories: husband Norman Triggs; children: Keith Thomas Jr., Kayla Thomas, Kelsea Thomas and Keshon Thomas. three granddaughters: Ava and Aryanna Hubbard, and Amina Thomas. And a soon to be grandson who is due in January 2022. His name will be Dominic Thomas. Siblings: Ceavorn Walker, Ianther Walker, Rose Stuart-Kochis (Joseph), Harold Hardy (DeAngela). Also a host of nieces, nephews and other relatives and friends. You will be forever in our hearts Peaches. We will always love you.
