“ Grandma always made our visits memorable. Ever since childhood I'd looked forward to our trips to that quiet Cleveland street. We'd arrive late at night to a pot full of the best pasta I've tasted to date, alongside an unmatched plate of delicious collard greens. She'd give us hugs and say hello before inviting my brother and I to chow down. I'd wait days in anticipation of her sweet potato pies and pudding cakes, recipes I hope we never lose. It was impossible to resist Grandma's food.

But Grandma was more than an excellent cook. She was one of the kindest people I've met, and it was always a joy spending time with her. When we visited she took great care of us. Whether we were sitting together in the TV room or tossing sheets down the laundry chute, I always remember feeling happy.

Those days staying in that house are among my favorites. I will always remember those blue sheets, the green fan on the table, the toy crocodile in the flower pot and many others. But most of all, I'll remember Grandma.

I love you Grandma, and I hope to make you proud.

“ This picture is just the way I remember Mrs. Moore when Val and I were in high school together. She shared a lot of wisdom with us as she encouraged us to become "nice young ladies." My condolences to all of the family members. I know you will have nothing but the fondest of memories of your beautiful mother. She truly was a gem! I will be keeping you all in thought and prayers. Love, Debbie Caldwell & family.
