“ I love Uncle Ray so much. I enjoyed talking with him. He was full of knowledge about so many things. We discussed sports, politics, engineering, business, crime, his time in the military, when he and my Dad played softball, when Uncle Ray first met Auntie. He never ran out of stories. And he always made me laugh. I will miss those stories and laughs, and I will deeply miss him. I am comforted in knowing he is with the Lord. God's Peace (John 14:27) and Comfort (John 14:26) to our family and Uncle Ray's friends.
