Rose Clark Obituary

A time to be born : Rose Marie Clark was born in Cleveland, Ohio on August 25, 1960 at Metro General Hospital to the parents of Josephine D. Clark and James Wilburn.

A time to rest : Rose departed this life on Monday, January 18th, 2021 at Cleveland Clinic Hospital

A time to work : Training Center in Maple Heights, Ohio. Adult Activity Center in Brooklyn, Ohio

A time to relax : Camp Cheerful in Strongsville, Ohio

A time to educate : William Patrick Day

A time to love : Rose loved her sisters, nieces, nephews, family and anyone who she came in contact with. She was a protector and just a joy to be around. Her party spirit and smile always lit up the room. Rose loved to have her diet Pepsi, fun, dance, and get the party started! Rose enjoyed life and will continue to do so in her after life. She will truly be missed by all who knew her.

A time to mourn : Rose will be joining her parents, Josephine Clark and James Wilburn and Fannie Pridgen. She leaves to cherish her memory, her sisters, Dee Patterson, Lynette Jackson, Susan Patterson, Renee Anthony (Tony); one aunt, Cecilia Cayson; nieces, nephews, cousins, and a host of family and treasured friends, special cousins, Carl Jackson and family from Detroit, Michigan.
