Sonya Banks Obituary

Sonya Maria Banks was born to Robert Banks (deceased) and Dorothy E. Banks on September 26, 1953 and was affectionately called “Pumpkin”.

Sonya began her Christian journey at Canaan Missionary Baptist Church and attended Sunday School every Sunday morning, Sonya enjoyed being on the Usher Board and loved reading her bible. All that knew her also know that she was a worshiper. She also played the violin and often played bridge and knitting was her thing.

Quality time with dad was a long ride site seeing. Taking care of mom was always her top priority. Big sis, Cheri and Sonya pretty much did everything together. Movies, plays, dinners,,etc. And the entire family enjoyed cruises together, Sonya graduated from Shaker Heights High School with honors. She received her Associate Degree in Nursing from Tri-C (Cuyahoga County College) and she received her BSN from Frances Payne Bolton School of Nursing from Case Western Reserve University.

On Thursday June 1, 2023, the Lord called Sonya from Labor to Reward. Her memories will be forever cherished by her mom, Dorothy E. Banks and her sister, Cheri L. and a host of cousins, relatives, and friends.
