Taniece "Niecy" Griffin Obituary

Ms. Taniece Griffin was born December 12, 1957 in Cleveland, Ohio to the late Rev. James and Lillian Griffin. She was preceded in death by her father.

Niecy, as she was affectionately called by all that knew her, loved spending time with her boys. She had passion for baking cakes and everyone always requested her German chocolate cake. It was amazing! Niecy worked various jobs throughout her life. Her last job was at Midwest Mail Presort where she worked along side her mom. She accepted Jesus Christ as her savior at an early age at True Light M.B.C. She later joined True M.B.C and was rebaptized in 2016. She served as B.T.U secretary and financial secretary for the church. She loved the Lord, her church family and especially her pastor.

Niecy has left behind her two sons Frederick (Ericka her daughter as she called her) and Eugene (Ashley). Siblings Aldophus (Sharon), Micheal (Renea), James Jr., Janice Tripplet, Jeanette Shoulders, Larry Griffin, Jamella Hall and James Jerome. 11 grandchildren, 3 great grandchildren, a host of nephews and nieces, family and friends. one special nephew Jamel Shoulders and her favorite cuz Juanita Alvarado.

On October 13, 2023 Taniece was called home to Be with the Lord. She will be greatly missed!

And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose.
